

Steam Up For More Decontrol

Next Effort be Directed for the Removal of the Wage Controls

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—(AP)—OPA today removed price lids from coffee as it speeded up the decontrol drive.

The price agency said it had approved a decontrol petition on both green and roasted coffee at all levels of distribution.

As the White House prepared to hasten the scrapping of wage controls along with food price ceilings, OPA freed all vegetable fats and oils—margarine, mayonnaise and salad dressings—from federal restraints.

The agency said it agreed to lift its price ceilings on coffee because "data presented by the industry and obtained by OPA" indicated that "supply and demand were approximately in balance."

Even as the pace quickened, UNRRA director Fiorenzo H. La Guardia denounced the decision which led to the speed-up—removal of meat controls—and declared the new policy will result in "industrial confusion, financial dislocation, social disturbance and political dictatorship."

As LaGuardia spoke, in Oklahoma City, a high government official here predicted that "in a day or so" President Truman will clarify the status of the wage stabilization board.

This is the tri-way—public, industry, labor—panel whose industry members recently submitted resignations to Mr. Truman. Some labor and business leaders have demanded that it be abolished.

While forecasting a quick decision on the board, officials said the stage already is set for "accelerated" scrapping of wage controls. Hence they expressed the doubt that the president will consider it necessary to take any further action on this right away.

He made his position clear on that when he said in his radio talk (Monday night) that the speedup of price decontrol will necessarily hasten the removal of wage controls, said one official in close touch with the White House discussions.

The official told a reporter that faster scrapping of wage curbs "will be automatic" as price lids drop off, since only industries under ceilings are tied at present to pay controls.

He added that OPA is "really going to roll" in getting rid of price ceilings, and that this in turn will free wages in most industries very soon.

In some fields — construction, for example — prices will remain under control for some time. Hence, wages will too.

As for the wage board, AFL and CIO members of the panel conferred yesterday with reconstruction.

Erratic Trend On the Markets

CHICAGO, Oct. 17.—(AP)—All commodity markets today experienced extremely nervous trading, with prices fluctuating widely, in the wake of overnight regulations removing fats and oils from ceiling control.

Featuring chaotic markets throughout the nation were heavy receipts of livestock, plunging butter prices, sharp mark-downs in the price of cash corn, soaring quotations for soybeans and lard, and erratically lower cotton markets.

While trading was still in progress, the agriculture department announced removal of restrictions on the use of feed grains and Senator Elmer Thomas (D-Okla.) sent telegrams to cotton exchanges saying he had information there was a "pending bear raid on cotton prices."

Farmers poured livestock into major terminals and prices were sharply lower on hogs and slightly lower on cattle despite the fact that a new all-time record was established at Chicago for a few cattle at $37.50 a hundred pounds.

Hog prices at Chicago were down $2.00 to $7.00 a hundred pounds. St. Louis reported prices down $5.00 to $6.00, Omaha losses averaged around $4.00 to $5.00, Indianapolis declines were around $2.00. Everywhere, pens were jammed and traders had difficulty in establishing prices.

Butter markets were overwhelmed with offerings which traders attributed to removal of ceilings on fats and oils, competitive products. At New York butter tumbled 7 to 8 cents a pound from record high levels. The top grade sold at 79½ to 80½ cents a pound.

When she returned to her car she found a police ticket—for a parking violation.

Work Proceeds at Glass Plant

Progress on the glass factory being built by the Pittsburgh Corning Glass Company is shown in the picture which was taken from the road. Most of the work which has been done has been underground for smokestacks and glass furnaces. Shown in the picture are sections of the foundation. The steel work is expected to start in November. ## 'Kickoff' for Campaign of Farm Bureau

Dinner Meeting
Wednesday Night
At Liberty Park

The annual "kick-off" meeting, which always precedes the membership campaign for Pettis County Farm Bureau, took place Wednesday evening, October 16, at Convention hall in Liberty park.

A pot-luck dinner arranged by Albert Runge, Mrs. Walter Rissler and other members of the Home and Community committee, was served.

Directly following the dinner, the meeting began with Ernest Jones, LaMonte, as membership chairman, presiding.

The highlight of the evening was the principal speaker, E. M. (Smoky) Woods, livestock and wool marketing director of the Missouri Farm Bureau Federation. Mr. Woods reviewed the past record and history of the Farm Bureau and pointed out the many ways Farm Bureau and other farm organizations have helped "Rural America" in the county, state and nation. Some of the major accomplishments, says Mr. Woods, include rural credit, rural schools, rural health, R. E. A. farm program, F. S. A. and S. C. S. agricultural education derived through the Extension Service and Vocational Agriculture. "Leaders of Rural America" can point with a great deal of pride to the accomplishments during the past 30 years.

One of the best proofs of our organization's ability, Mr. Woods believes, is the production of food during the war years. All the agencies and groups brought about improved practices which made increased production possible.

Work With Groups
Mr. Wood explained that in the state, Farm Bureau has worked with other groups to bring about legislation fair to farmers. The new veterinary school as part of the university will in a few years have enough trained veterinarians to nearly assure all farmers of their services when the need arises.

Also our active support of the King road bill will further aid for more hard surfaced roads for our state.

Some asked the question of "Why Farm Bureau?" Mr. Woods told the ladies present of the achievements mentioned above and gave it as his opinion that the years just ahead will present problems that only a united support can solve. "Membership in Farm Bureau is a genuine privilege. A privilege to be part of a united agriculture big enough to serve all the interests of farm families."

Charles St. John, who is district fieldman, southwest district, made a report as to the huge success of a report as to the huge success of the different counties in his district.

Progress by Peace Parley

Byrnes Home to Give Report on Friday Night

By John M. Hightower

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—(AP)—Secretary of State Byrnes returned today from the Paris Peace Conference and received President Truman's congratulations for doing a "most excellent job" at the 21-nation convocation.

Byrnes reported to Mr. Truman immediately after arriving home. The 30-minute conference was the first meeting of the nation's top foreign policy makers since Henry Wallace was ousted from the cabinet for criticizing Byrnes' handling of relations with Russia.

Although the State department chief told reporters he could say nothing about his conversations at the White House, Presidential Press Secretary Charles G. Ross reported that Mr. Truman had congratulated Byrnes on his work.

Ross said the Secretary gave Mr. Truman a "complete report" on the peace conference and that the chief executive felt Byrnes had done a "most excellent job."

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—(AP)—Secretary of State Byrnes arrived home from the Paris peace conference today and declared the 21-nation convocation had "made progress" towards establishing organized peace in Europe.

It certainly cannot be called a "failure," Byrnes told newsmen at National airport as he stepped off President Truman's personal plane, the "Sacred Cow," which brought him across the Atlantic.

The Secretary went immediately to the state department, where he planned to telephone President Truman and arrange an appointment.

This get-together will be the first personal meeting of Byrnes and Mr. Truman since Henry A. Wallace criticized Byrnes' policies toward Russia and then was ousted from the cabinet.

Tomorrow night Byrnes will make a radio report to the nation at a time still to be announced.

Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich.), who accompanied Byrnes, said there were both "peace credit and peace debit at Paris, but on the whole the balance shows at net advance for peace."

Byrnes' return from the conference, where he was in almost constant conflict with Russia's Foreign Minister Molotov, coincided

E. O. McCown Killed In Auto Accident

Emil Kuhns Driver Of Second Car Dies Enroute To Hospital

Two men were killed in an automobile collision on Highway 5, three miles south of Tipton, Mo., about 6:45 o'clock Wednesday night. One was Eugene Owen McCown, 24, 1721 West Fifth street, Sedalia, and the other Emil Kuhns, of Prairie Home, both were drivers of the cars they were in.

Clarence Pardue, of California, Mo., a passenger in the 1941 Chrysler sedan driven by Kuhns, received lacerations and bruises, but his injuries were not considered serious. He was treated at the Latham sanitarium, California, Mo., and released.

McCown died in his car a few minutes after the accident, while Kuhns died in the Richards ambulance while being rushed to the Latham sanitarium in California. Neither regained consciousness after the collision.

According to Carl Crum, R. F. D. No. 4, who had been with McCown, at Versailles, where they had been selling apples, McCown left him about 6 o'clock in the evening to start back to Sedalia in his 1934 Ford coach. He was returning home to be with his wife who gave birth to a son Monday night.

Crum said that he arrived on the scene about twenty minutes after it occurred, and found the McCown car turned completely around and headed back south with McCown slumped over in the seat. The other car was turned half way around and in a ditch on the other side of the road, and Kuhns in it unconscious.

It was said the cars sideswiped on a curve, about three miles south of Tipton in about the middle of the highway. Both automobiles were badly smashed and wrecked. McCown suffered a broken neck, and possible internal injuries.

Dr. H. C. Hume, coroner of Montevideo county was called and after viewing the wreckage and the bodies of the two men, stated he did not believe an inquest was necessary. State Trooper Harold Priess, California, Mo., made an investigation of the accident.

Mr. McCown was born in Sedalia, May 2, 1922, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin McCown, 1203 West Main street. He was married to Miss Margie McDonald on May 19, 1940, and to this union were born four children, Delores, 3; Michael, 3; Patricia, 1, and Ben-Ray, who was born Monday.

Surviving besides his wife, children and parents, are five brothers, Edgar, M. McCown, Morris McCown, Melvin McCown, and Wallace McCown, all of Sedalia, and Elsie McCown, of Windsor.

The body is at the Ewing funeral home.

Funeral services will be at 10:30 o'clock Saturday morning at the Ewing funeral home.

Burial will be in Memorial Park cemetery.

The body of Kuhns was taken to the Richards Funeral home in Tipton and later to Prairie Home.

Tiger 'Bees' Play Here Friday Night

The University of Missouri "B" team, undefeated in five starts, will be gunning for their sixth straight at Sedalia Friday night, October 18th. The Junior Bengals will be opposed by the Kansas State Wildcat reserves. The game starts at 7:30 p. m. at Liberty Park.

The Bengal Bees are in hopes of repeating the varsity's performance against the Wildcats last Saturday. The Tigers steam-rolled over the Kansas 26-0 at Manhattan.

Missouri will be pinning their hopes on Clarence "Dutch" Wyatt of Charleston, Mo., shift quarterback, and Dick Keller of St. Louis, whose line-smashing drives opened the Oklahoma "B" team line last Saturday at Joplin. Keller scored the only Tiger touchdown from the 11 yard line, but this proved enough for the strong Missouri forward wall. He also added the extra point and the Tigers won 7-0 before 3,000 shivering fans in near freezing weather.

"Dutch" Wyatt has been the spark-plug of all the five previous "B" games and has been a consistent ground-gainer. The Junior Bengals will miss the services of Bob Teel and Bill Day, halfbacks. They played so well at Manhattan with the Varsity that Coach Don Fauriol has lifted them from the "B" team roster to the Varsity traveling squad.

England Has Long List of Eccentrics

They Think Most Americans a Little 'Touched' Too

By Ed Creagh
(For Hal Boyle)

LONDON, Oct. 17.—(P)—The visiting Frenchman who once remarked that England was populated entirely by madmen, may have been exaggerating somewhat, but it's true that a day's stroll around London will turn up more nuts than you could find in a prewar fruitcake.

No insult is intended and most Englishmen would agree readily that the percentage of screwballs in the population is high by any standard. Some would go so far as to agree with the Frenchman—and blame it on the climate. England takes pride in her eccentrics. They are of all classes. You find them dozing in the House of Lords, ranting from platforms in Hyde Park, wearing out the upholstery of club chairs, reading aloud by the open air bookstalls in Charing Cross Road, feeding the pigeons in Trafalgar Square.

You find them, of course, in every great city—but not so many of them. Maybe it is the damp, foggy climate that turns men's minds inward upon themselves. More likely it is the English tolerance of mild nuttiness. Whatever it is, it has been going on for a long time.

Had to Touch Lions

There was Samuel Johnson, who likes to drop in for a cup of tea and leave with a under his belt. The two iron posts that he always went out of his way to touch—it spoiled his day if he didn't touch them—are still standing in Red Lion Court.

There was the Earl of Bridgewater, who flourished in the days after Waterloo. He liked dogs. Around his dining room table were 12 armchairs and in each, during dinner, sat a pet pooch with a napkin around its neck. The Earl considered this quite natural.

There was the great Jeremy Bentham who willed his body, in a mahogany case, to a school of anatomy for exhibition purposes in 1799. It's still sitting there, still on exhibition, dressed in the clothes he usually wore.

On the distaff side there was Hannah Snell, who went to war in the guise of a male soldier, distinguished herself in action and retired happily to run a public house for many years.

Eccentrics Today

If it weren't for the libel laws a similar list of the mentally off-the-beam could be compiled from the pages of Who's Who today. The eminent eccentrics wouldn't mind in the least, but their relatives might.

Some clue to the prevalence of pottiness may lie in the Englishman's inbred determination to do as he dashed well pleases so long as it doesn't involve violent injury to someone else. This trait is found in many a contemporary whom no one would think of calling peculiar.

King George VI crochets and anybody who doesn't like it can jump it. Earl Winton crosses the floor of the House of Commons on all fours when it is in session. He says it's traditional. A well known peer delivers milk. Another collects matchbook covers.

Then there is the conductor of the No. 13 bus who recites for the customers, and the "Screever"—sidewalk artist—who finds everything he draws turning into a picture of Winston Churchill, and the butler who is long and few Englishmen are at all surprised by it.

Instead they think most visiting Americans are a little touched.

House Mother 'Sweater Girl'

By Frances E. Barden

STILLWATER, Okla., Oct. 17.—(P)—The boys at the Sigma Nu House whooped up a big contest and who do you suppose is now their "Sweater Girl of 1946?"

The house mother, Mrs. Fred Nelson!

And not only did Mrs. Nelson, whose age is a secret the boys closely guard, come up with the title—she also won a silver loving cup, suitably engraved.

"It was some contest," was the solemn observation of Bob Balch, Tulsa, Okla., social chairman of Epsilon Epsilon Chapter of Sigma Nu on the Oklahoma Aggie campus here.

"Each member and pledge entered his date, and 65 girls, all strong contenders, showed up."

"There was a lot of enthusiasm, especially among the boys, who formed a whistling section to cheer on their favorites."

On the other hand, Balch admitted, the evening of the contest had its trying moments.

"Several gals," he sighed, tried to foil us by wearing middie under their sweaters and some of the girls from one Sorority even borrowed men's sweaters.

"It did them no good at all. In fact, their appeal, in sweaters many sizes too large, was strictly negative."

Actual judging of the contest, Balch confided, was not too tough. "Mrs. Nelson just had them all outclassed," he grinned.

"They had no chance at all. The decision was unanimous. And how did the boys save the feelings of their dates?"

"It was easy," chortled Balch. "We just made them all runners-up."

All Mixed Up

Mrs. Charles Snodgrass (right), English war bride, has found herself in a four-way marital mixup that will take a divorce and two marriages to untangle. At Moberly, Mo., where the Snodgrass live, Sheriff Amos Magruder related this story: Snodgrass (left), remarried while in service after separating from his first wife. By mutual agreement she was to get a divorce but, thinking Snodgrass dead, she married Harold Clayburg, Canton, Ill., without obtaining the decree. After discovering the tangle, Mrs. Clayburg divorced her second husband and now is seeking a divorce from Snodgrass. Both couples plan to remarry when the situation is straightened out (Associated Press Photo.)

Officers for Club Elected

The Brick Homemakers club met at the club house October 15th, with eleven members and one visitor, Miss Louise Leeper. A song, "Love's Old Sweet Song," was sung. Mrs. Burford Jenkins gave the devotional. Roll call was answered by giving a proverb. The following officers were elected for 1947: President, Mrs. Robert Holman; vice president, Mrs. Cecil Rodgers; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. M. B. Troyer; reporter, Mrs. Roy Amstrong; game leader, Mrs. Burford Jenkins; song leader, Mrs. Vincil Fry; parliamentarian, Mrs. Fred Holman; child development chairman, Mrs. Frank Homan; reading chairman, Mrs. J. H. Parsons; reporter, Mrs. Roy Amstrong.

Cardinal Players Off On Vacations

Cards Vote Each Share At $3,757 For The Series

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 17.—(AP)—For the first time in many months the pressure was off the champion St. Louis Cardinals today and the players turned to plans of a more personal if somewhat less exciting nature.

The baseball season was finally over, and the Cards had won from Boston Red Sox the world series in which most of the experts said they didn't have a chance. A tired but happy staff at the Cardinal office dug through a huge pile of congratulatory telegrams from baseball fans ranging from Commissioner A. B. (Happy) Chandler to the mayor of Honolulu.

The Cardinals voted a full share of the series receipts, each richer by $3,757 after a hard day's work, were packing their bags and leaving for their homes, for delayed vacation trips and—in some cases more work.

At least two of them still had baseball on their minds. Stan Musial, the hard-hitting first baseman, was reported en route to Los Angeles where he will join Bob Feller's touring All-Star team. The veteran coach Mike Gonzalez was all set to go back to his winter job of managing the Havana club in the Cuban league.

Harry (The Cat) Brecheen, who made a hero of himself by winning three series games, said he planned to just take it easy, hunt and fish until he gets tired.

Others who planned to oil up the old gun and haul out the fishing rod included Ken Bruckhardt, Ted Wilks, Enos Slaughter, Al Brazle, Coach Buzzy Ware, Clyde Klutz and Del Rice.

Harry Walker was anxious to get back to Leeds, Ala., where he and his brother, Dixie of the Brooklyn Dodgers, own two hardware stores. There he will see for the first time the bay born to his wife a few days ago.

Marty (Mr. Shortstop) Marion has rented out his home here and will return to the Marion farm at Richburg, S. C. "I'm just going to take it easy, rest my back and get in shape for next season," the lanky infielder said. His plans also include a trip to Florida.

Terry Moore, one of the fielding stars of the series, will enter a hospital Monday for an operation on his ailing right knee.

Joe Garagiola, Dick Sisler, Whitey Kurovski, Howie Pollet and Red Schoendienst had nothing definite in mind except a lot of rest. The 20-year-old Garagiola may resume his studies at St. Louis university.

George (Red) Mungler, who returned from army duty in Germany just in time for the pennant campaign's stretch run, plans a long vacation with relatives at Houston, Tex.

Manager Eddie Dyer, who piloted the club to the world championship in his first year as a major league manager, also will go to Houston to forget about baseball strategy for a while and to devote some attention to his oil business there.

Cremate Bodies Of 11 Nazis

he got the poison and how he concealed it—his last grim joke.

Col. B. C. Andrus, prison commandant, insisted that he believed his own personnel innocent of any wrongdoing. He said bitterly that a German attorney, perhaps in the last days of the trial, may have given Goering the poison vial that enabled him to take his own life.

In this, however, he was in conflict with his assistant, Major Fred Teich, who said he was convinced that Goering had found some way to conceal the vial and might have had it in his possession ever since his incarceration after the war ended.

Has All Jewels

Teich also sought to explode a circulating theory that one of the prison guards traded Goering the poison for one of the marshal's gems. Teich said he had all the jewels safe in the prison strong-box.

News of Goering's suicide and of the execution of the other ten men raced swiftly through the prison to the seven defendants who escaped with prison terms, to be served eventually in Spandau jail, Berlin. A guard said they received the news non-committally, but gave the impression that they were pleased Goering had escaped the rope.

These men, including Rudolf Hess, are to be transferred to Spandau sometime next month, prison reports said.

Blame For Delay

BERLIN, Oct. 17.—(AP)—Editorials in the British press which blamed U. S. authorities for delay in announcement of the Nuremberg executions and Hermann Goering's suicide drew a sharp rejoinder today from American military government public relations officers.

They said arrangements for carrying out the executions and news coverage of the hangings was a four-power responsibility, executed by a quadripartite commission appointed by the Allied control council.

They added that charges that a "gag" was imposed upon the press "comes with ill grace from the British, because their representative in the control council, along with the French representative, wanted to restrict press and picture coverage of the executions to a minimum."

(British newspapers complained last night that the handling of the news about Goering's suicide and the hangings had been "bungled") and the London Daily Mail, in apparent reference to an unofficial report by Dana—American controlled German news agency—that Goering had been hanged with the other 10, charged that "the world's press and the German people were completely deceived by an official American announcement . . ."

A Daily Express correspondent termed the long delay in announcing Goering's suicide—almost eight hours—the "worst hush-hush ban yet."

An American officer who attends control council sessions said the American representative, Gen. Joseph T. McNamery, had led the fight to give the world press access to the executions and that in this effort he had the support of the Russians.

To Death Without Communion

NUERNBERG, Oct. 17.—(AP)—Hermann Goering went to his death without communion, though he had requested it from the prison chaplain the day before, prison officials said today.

Capt. H. F. Becke, of St. Louis, protestant chaplain of the jail, refused to give Goering communion because the arrogant ex-Reichsmarshal was not repentant. Such a ceremony with Goering, in view of his attitude over many months, would have been sacrilegious, the chaplain told Goering.

War Crimes As a Warning

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—(AP)—President Truman said today that the Nuremberg verdicts "will stand in history as a beacon to warn international brigands of the fate that awaits them."

The president's comment was expressed in a letter to associate Justice Robert H. Jackson accepting his resignation as chief U. S. counsel of the international military tribunal which tried the major Nazi war criminals.

Ten of the defendants were hanged yesterday and Hermann Goering, No. 2 Nazi, committed suicide shortly before he was to have been led to the gallows.

Mr. Truman said for his part he had no hesitancy in declaring that the historic precedent set at Nuremberg "abundantly justifies the expenditure of effort, prodigious though it was." He added: "This precedent becomes basic in the international law of the future. The principles established and the results achieved place international law on the side of peace as against aggressive warfare."

The president did not commit himself on Jackson's recommendations for dealing with German militarists, industrialists, politicians, diplomats and police officials, asserting only that they "will be given careful consideration."

Better Foxhole

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—(AP)—The Independent Veterans Committee for Robert H. Thayer, a republican candidate in the 14th congressional district, Brooklyn, will open its headquarters tonight—in a tent.

Committee Chairman Morton B. Lawrence said:

It is no secret there is not a store or a flat available in the district.

Thayer is assistant commissioner of the New York state division of housing.

Hogs to Market Again

After being quid up in block-long lines outside Kansas City stockyards, trucks from Missouri, Kansas, Oklahoma, Nebraska and Iowa back up to unloading pens to unload hogs. Five thousand pigs arrived in one night at Kansas City yards, the heaviest since July 2 when OPA control was lifted. (NEA TELEPHOTO)

Thirteen Die In Plane Crash During Storm

some lay beneath the wreckage. One of the victims was found beneath a shattered wing.

More than two inches of snow covered the ground in the area.

Missourian on Plane

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif., Oct. 17.—(AP)—A list of the passengers aboard the NATS (commercial) plane that crashed at Laramie, Wyo., today made public here by the operators of the plane, a group of former navy fliers, included H. Whidden, 102 N. Everett, Kennett, Mo.

KENNETT, Mo., Oct. 17.—(AP)—Harry H. Whidden, aged 23, one of those killed in the crash of the Nats plane near Laramie, Wyo., today was en route to the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Whidden, in Kennett. He was to have been given his discharge from the navy.

Whidden, an aerologist's mate, second class, was involved in five major naval engagements. He was on the carrier Yorktown when it was sunk, his father said.

The pilot of the plane was Clarence Robert Abernathy, 27, a former lieutenant commander in the navy's air transport service, and a veteran of five years service flying.

Other crew members were identified as Harry Holle, San Francisco, co-pilot, and Dorothy Hartman, Oakland, stewardess.

Abernathy, whose home is in nearby San Lorenzo, was treasurer of NATS. He was born in Crystal City, Mo., and attended the University of St. Louis three years before he enlisted in the U. S. air force, where he served one year.

He then entered the U. S. navy and became a naval transport pilot, serving in both the Atlantic and Pacific theaters. After the war, he joined other naval pilots in establishing Nats as a commercial air line.

Stilwell Ashes To the Ocean

CARMEI, Cal., Oct. 17.—(AP)—General Joseph W. Stilwell's ashes were scattered yesterday in the Pacific ocean in accordance with the soldier-hero's wishes.

His personal plane, carrying the ashes, was piloted by a crew who flew him on countless missions in China and Burma, carried the ashes out to sea after dipping low and circling the Stilwell family home, Llamfair, at Carmel.

The four-star General died Saturday in Letterman general hospital, after an operation for cancer of the liver. At the time of his death he commanded the Sixth Army, with headquarters at the Presidio in San Francisco.

Private services were held, with only members of the family and close friends attending.

No Evidence On Lost Fliers

By John Roderick

SICHANG, China, Oct. 15.—(De-layed)—A U. S. army search party returned today from the wilds of China's far west without evidence that any lost American fliers have been enslaved by the fierce Lolo tribesmen.

They brought back the bones of one American crew member who perished in the crash of a Superfortress in March of 1945. The bodies of three others were recovered by the Chinese months ago.

The remaining six of the crew may have parachuted into the dense jungle and been captured by the Lolo warriors, but this is speculation and there is as yet no evidence to back it up.

The American graves registration party, accompanied by Associated Press Photographer Julian Wilson, scaled 14,400-foot Liangpoashan in the Wutai mountain range and looked at a portion of the wreckage.

They were the first known white men ever to climb the treacherous peak, and the whole trek into the wilds required a week.

Lt. Col. Herbert Wurtzler, Capt. Edward L. McAllister and Wilson climbed the peak and found the bones of one crew member.

"We are investigating these crashes to determine the truth or falsity of reports Americans are held by the Lolos," Wurtzler told the Associated Press.

"There have been five crashes in this vicinity, but we know of, some in remote areas."

Wurtzler already is making plans to go to another B-29 wreck to try to gather additional data. All indications are it will take weeks to track down rumors, more weeks if they are true and negotiations are completed for captive Americans' release.

'Orders From Higher Command'

WICHITA, Kas., Oct. 17.—(AP)—Mrs. Hazel Marie Woods, wife of M. Sgt. John C. Woods, executioner of 10 Nazi leaders at Nuremberg Tuesday, today said news of her husband's duties came to her "as a complete surprise."

"He never told me that he was doing that type of work," Mrs. Woods said. "He didn't mention any hangings and the first I knew of it was when I saw his picture in the papers."

Asked what she thought of his record of hanging an estimated 233 Germans, Mrs. Woods, on the verge of tears, said, "that is his job. He received his orders from higher command."

Mrs. Woods said she first learned her husband was the executioner when she saw his picture in the papers and immediately notified an army recruiting officer here about her relationship.

She said that they have been married for 14 years and that they have no children. She added that he was drafted into the army in August, 1942, and has been overseas for approximately three years.

He was stationed in England with the engineers for a while and took part in the invasion of the continent.

Pie Supper at Salem School

A pie supper was held Monday night, October 14, at Salem school at which the proceeds amounted to $147.48. Jesse Paul was the auctioneer.

Members of the P. T. A. served hot coffee, pie, sandwiches and ice cream in the basement of the school and a sum of between $20.00 and $30.00 was realized.

Proceeding the selling of the pies an interesting program was presented by the pupils of the school and the teacher, Miss Challis Johnson.

The program was as follows: "Hail, Hail" by the school children followed by a selection, "Coronet March" by the Rhythm band; dialogue, "Courage to Say Yes" by Carl Norman Holman, Mary Lou Holder, Rastoma, Sonny and Minnie Kuhn, Billy Joe Estes, Jackie Birdsong and Catherine Fisher; duet, "You Can't Play in My Yard" by Jean Holman and Jacqueline Jo Gardner; song by five boys, "I Ain't Gonna Grieve My Lawd No More" Carl Norman Holman, Sonny Kuhn, Billy Joe Estes and Raymond and Bobbie Bass; action song, by school, "John Brown's Body," rounds by the school, "Little Tommy Tucker" and "The Donkey Sings" Singing Recitation, "A Tiny Tot," Skippy Gardner.

Escapes Reformatory Then Phones Police

JEFFERSON CITY, Oct. 17.—(AP)—Cleddie Evans, 22 of Ft. Worth, Texas, became lonesome at Missouri reformatory yesterday and escaped.

Serving a two-year sentence from Warren county for grand larceny, Evans found it even more lonesome walking the streets here last night and telephoned police to "come and get me."

They did.

First Prize on Eggs

Miss Gladys Arnett, Green Ridge, received first prize for eggs entered in a contest and also the sweepstakes prize which were held during the Iowa county fair. There were approximately thirty entries in the contest.

Steal Jewels From Duke and Duchess

LONDON, Oct. 17.—(AP)—Surrey police announced today that burglars broke into the country home of the Earl of Dudley at Sunningdale, Surrey, last night, and stole a "considerable amount of jewelry" belonging to the Duke and Duchess of Windsor.

The former British monarch and his wife are guests of the Earl during their visit to England.

Police disclosed no details of the robbery and the Duke himself had little to say.

The British Press Associated said the Duchess of Windsor owns jewels estimated at $1,000,000, but there was no estimate of the exact amount stolen.

Her collection includes complete sets of blue sapphires, rubies, emeralds, diamonds, topaz, jonyx and turquoise.

A slipping clutch should be taken care of immediately, as plates may be damaged beyond repair.

Blackberries are red when they're green, or unripe.

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Anton have returned from an automobile trip through Iowa, where they visited relatives and friends. Mr. Anton reports the crops in Iowa are fine, one of the largest corn crops for several years. Much of the corn will average 100 bushels per acre. Small grain is also above the average and farmers are already gathering corn.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Smallwood, 506 East Tenth street, and Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Weinrich, 310 West Fifth street, have returned from a week's vacation. They traveled through Arkansas, Southern Missouri, Tennessee, Kentucky and Illinois. While on their trip they attended several good shows.

Mr. and Mrs. Gentry Patterson have returned to their home in Roscoe, Cal., after a three weeks visit with Mrs. Patterson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Meyer, Route 2, Sedalia, and Mr. Patterson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Patterson, Sr., and his sister, Miss Marian Smith, 1800 South Beacon avenue.

Mrs. Effie Statts, 403 West Broadway, had as her weekend guests her daughter, Mrs. J. A. Riley, and Mr. Riley and her grandson and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Riley, Jr., all of Des Moines, Iowa.

with new indications that American relations with Russian block countries are worsening.

Deal With Chief Issue

Byrnes' speech is expected to deal with the whole range of critical issues involved in United States-Russian relations. On top of clear indications that these issues generally were intensified rather than solved by the Paris meeting, the state department disclosed a dramatic new development on the very eve of the cabinet officer's return.

Officials said the United States had canceled a $40,000,000 surplus property credit to Czechoslovakia and in addition had suspended indefinitely a pending $50,000,000 rehabilitation loan to the Czechs by the export-import bank.

The primary reason behind this $90,000,000 slap at one of the countries in the Russian bloc was said to be the Czech backing of a dramatic new development in the United States is resorting to "dollar diplomacy" in Eastern Europe in an effort to advance "American imperialism."

There was no official statement to this effect, but the evidence appears to be that at some critical moment in the long Paris struggle Byrnes himself ordered or approved the economic crackdown on Czechoslovakia.

An even more drastic action than the temporary suspension last summer of a $90,000,000 loan and credit to Poland, the rap at the Czechs also was in sharp contrast to this country's traditional friendship toward Prague.

Greater Flood Of Livestock

Trucks Pour In

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 17.—(AP)—An all-night stream of trucks poured livestock into the stockyards again today, but the receipts were termed by one stockyard official as "heavy, but not exceptional."

By morning 8,500 cattle were received; 1,700 calves; 6,000 hogs and 11,000 sheep. This was slightly above yesterday's receipts. On the heavy run of hogs were termed unusual by stockyard officials for this time of year.

Increase at Omaha

OMAHA, Oct. 17.—(AP)—Livestock poured into the Omaha market in a never increasing volume today. Just before dawn, yards officials said that livestock trucks were backed up for approximately two and one-half miles waiting for a chance to unload. Tuesday night, trucks were backed up for ten blocks, but were virtually all unloaded by sunrise yesterday.

With the backlog still to be handled, yards officials said they had already driven 12,000 hogs, 8,000 cattle and 3,300 sheep into the pens this morning.

Trucks Wait to Unload

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., Oct. 17.—(AP)—Livestock trucks still were waiting at mid-morning to discharge their loads of cattle and hogs at the St. Joseph live stock market.

Estimated receipts were 9,000 hogs, 6,700 cattle and 5,000 sheep.

Will Still Kill His Three Bears

DES MOINES, Ia., Oct. 17.—(AP)—Despite removal of meat ceilings, Kenneth Sonderleiter has not changed his plans to kill his three bears—papa, mama and baby—to relieve the meat shortage and because they are too expensive to feed.

Sonderleiter said no orders for the bear meat had been canceled since removal of meat ceilings Tuesday, and he was going ahead with plans to slaughter the bears when the cold weather arrived.

He said he had enough orders to take care of the approximately 1,200 pounds of meat he expects to get after slaughtering the bears. But he said he was delaying the killing until cold weather because the bears' fur would stand up better and their pelts would be more valuable.

Divorce Is Petitioned

A petition for divorce was filed in the circuit clerk's office today by Frieda A. Horne against Dee Aubrey Horne. The petition states that the couple was married on April 9, 1946, and lived together until June 21, 1946. The couple was previously married in 1942 and the plaintiff asks for the Division of their two minor children. General indignities were alleged. Crawford and Harlan are attorneys for the plaintiff.

Bounties on Wolves

The county clerk paid a $10 bounty to Ernest Jones, LaMonte and a $10 bounty to Marion Goodwin, northeast of Sedalia, for old wolves brought to the office today.

Storage Battery Shortage Serious

DETROIT, Oct. 17.—(AP)—The shortage of electrical storage batteries probably will become more critical during the coming winter than it has been at any time in the automobile industry's history.

There may be enough batteries for the restricted number of new cars and trucks that will be produced during the next two or three months, but they will be made available at the expense of an already inadequate output of batteries for replacement purposes.

Unless there is a quick easing of the battery situation thousands of motor vehicles will be made idle this winter.

These are the views expressed in authoritative sources of both the automobile and the battery industries.

The battery shortage stems from prolonged scarcity of lead. The metal also is needed for bearings and solder, insofar as the automobile industry alone is concerned.

version director John R. Steelman. They indicated beforehand they would urge liquidation of the board to permit a return to unrestricted collective bargaining. The board and a public member, told newsmen after a separate conference with Steelman that removal of curbs on any wage increases negotiated in collective would have the effect of eliminating virtually all pay controls almost at once.

Wirtz said he did not believe this course was being considered seriously.

OPA said its order removing ceilings from all vegetable fats and oils was the direct result of lifting controls on meat and items derived from it, like lard.

Sharp Rise Expected

"The usual price relationship between lard and vegetable oils would be distorted by the expected sharp rise in uncontrolled lard prices," the agency said.

In another ruling on food, the decontrol board decided against restoring ceilings on dairy products, even though it found that prices, "especially for milk and cheese, have now risen to an unreasonable level."

Said the board: "The recontrol of all or any part of the dairy products would be inconsistent with the accelerated decontrol program announced by the president."

Thus the board, which only two months ago was an all-powerful supreme court on prices, faced the future with little to do.

Conservatively, Chairman Roy L. Thompson said "the change in the government's price control policy will undoubtedly lighten the load of the board."

La Guardia aired his views in a broadcast from Oklahoma City as livestock prices shattered records at the nation's major stockyards. Slaughter pens were jammed for the loads of cattle and hogs which jammed highways before the crash.

LaGuardia, former mayor of New York, said that Mr. Truman, in his "about face" on meat controls, had "joined the opposition."

"The budget of every American family has been hit," La Guardia declared. "The cost of living is leaping beyond the reach of the average family. The lid on profiteering is off—the bars of control are down."

Congressman Bennett stated that the main issues of the 1946 campaign are: control, confusion, corruption and Communism. "If," said Mr. Bennett, "I am re-elected to Congress, I will continue my efforts to clear up the confusion, clean out the corruption and controls and keep out the Communism and to keep America American."

Bomb Melts Away Vaults

TULSA, Okla., Oct. 17.—(AP)—Atomic bomb blasts which melted Japanese depositories for private fortunes have caused micro-film records of part of the private wealth of this country to be deposited in underground bank vaults in Nebraska and Kansas, Roger W. Babson, statistician and investment counselor, said here last night.

In an impromptu talk before the Tulsa Foreign Affairs club, Babson said he had sent an agent to appraise damage done to personal wealth of Hiroshima and Nagasaki business men, "which concern is my business."

The economist said the blasts' terrific heat had melted above-ground vaults, boxes and papers. Babson said his business institute had advised clients to make film record of valuable papers and deposit them underground, and that he himself was building a depository at Eureka, Kas.

His visit here was for an inspection of underground deposit facilities.

Attended Meeting Of Coal Dealers

J. Ed Hall and son, Herbert Hall, of the Central Coal Company, have returned home from Columbia, where on Wednesday they attended a district meeting of the Mid-western Retail Coal Association, which was held at the country home of Sam Dalton, three miles south of Columbia.

The meeting was presided over by Max Burnett, of Kansas City, and talks were made by W. C. Gregory, of the Blakeley company in St. Louis, and L. C. Sherrill, of the Union Electric company of St. Louis, on the possible supply of coal in this district, and Merle Crump, advertising manager of the St. Clair Coal company, made a talk on "Coal Heat Service."

A buffet luncheon was served at the noon hour.

Decline On Stocks

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—(AP)—The stock market generally worked in lower territory today without urgent liquidation making its appearance.

The direction was downward from the start. Virtually all departments suffered. Losses on the whole, running from 1 to 3 points—a few "thin" issues dipped 6 or 8—were reduced in most cases at the close although bidding was notably timid. Transfers for the full stretch were in the vicinity of 1,400,000 shares.

Firestone Tire was among a small assortment of stocks to show gains. This issue responded late in the session to the declaration of a $1 extra dividend. Pepsi-Cola added 2 points.

Conspicuous on the retreat were the strong American Woolen issues of Wednesday. Du Pont, U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, Chrysler, General Motors, U. S. Rubber, Montgomery Ward, International Harvester, Union Pacific, Santa Fe, Southern Pacific, Douglas Aircraft, Eastern Air Lines, Anacosta, American Smelting, Allied Chemical, American Telephone, Johns-Manville, Schenley, International Sugar, Eastman Kodak and Philip Morris.

Wheat Drops Limit

CHICAGO, Oct. 17.—(AP)—All grain futures, except wheat, were lower today. The Board of Trade today, wheat falling the 5 cent limit permitted in a single session. Corn and oats also were off 5 cents at times in heavy trading.

Weak at start, grains started to move down rapidly toward the close. Wheat was sold on fears that ceilings would not be removed from flour. Corn and oats were sold on the basis of sharply lower prices in hogs. A break in cotton at New York added to the pessimism.

Cash corn and oats were lower. Offerings of corn by the country expanded. Dealers reported 272,000 bushels of corn purchased to arrive basic ship before the close.

All wheat futures closed 5 cents lower. January, $2.01 1/2 to $2.01 3/4; December, $1.95 1/2 to $1.95 3/4; and oats were down 3/4 to 1/2 cent. November 79 1/2 to 80 1/4.

Call for Change In Housing Goals

CHICAGO, Oct. 17.—(P)—The American Federation of Labor today called on the administration to change its housing goals for veterans to produce more apartments for rent and fewer one-family homes for sale.

At the same time the AFL convention demanded that President Truman summon congress back to Washington for a special session to enact the Wagner-Ellender-Taft general housing bill.

The convention took its stand on housing as delegates prepared for final adjournment.

The convention housing resolution said that, so far, National Housing Expeditor Wilson Wyatt has been concentrating on a program of one-family homes for Veterans.

"These one-family homes will cost more than the average war veteran can pay for in his remaining years of life, thus causing foreclosure and loss of his home," the resolution said.

Most veterans hesitate "to be tied to the responsibility of paying a long-term mortgage," and rental apartments would provide "a living set-up within the veteran's spending means, causing him more contentment," the resolution added.

The AFL executive council said the Wagner-Ellender-Taft bill would help create housing "for every American family and a volume of construction large enough to enable the construction industry to make its necessary contribution to an economy of full production and full employment."

Tired Kidneys Often Bring Sleepless Nights

Doctors say your kidneys contain 15 miles of tiny tubes or filters which help to purify the blood and keep you healthy. When they get tired and don't work right in the daytime, many people have to get up nights. Frequent urinary passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder. Don't neglect this condition and lose valuable, restful sleep.

When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may also cause nagging headache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. Doan's gives happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

Controls Off Meat Will Start Things Happening

By James Marlow
WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—(P)—The end of price controls on meat today starts things happening. President Truman said that last night. He made these main points:

1. Wiping out price controls on other things will be speeded up.
2. The faster price controls end, the faster wage controls end.

This doesn't mean wiping out price controls on everything soon. He said some few controls must remain a long time, such as rent control.

What does all this mean? Meat is a very important part of your living cost. At first, at least, uncontrolled meat prices seem bound to shoot up.

If meat prices rise, the rest of industry will be restless under controls. If peevish about this, what could industry do?

It could hold back from the public the goods it makes until price controls end. Wouldn't that hurt the whole country? Sure. Other Controls Coming Off.

Mr. Truman cautioned industry not to do anything like. But he couldn't do anything about it if industry did just that.

So the only way to keep things smooth—now that meat controls are off—is to pull off other controls as fast as possible.

But he just can't wipe out controls all over the lot, with a wave of a wand.

Congress wrote into the OPA law some rules the government must follow on some goods.

For example: On certain items important to American living, price controls must be kept until there's enough of those goods to meet public demand.

(Lifting controls on those important things while they are scarce would send prices up. The reason: People would be scrambling to buy them.)

So, getting rid of most controls will take a little time.

But where do wage controls figure in all this?

Boards Act

Right now the government has OPA to control prices and the wage stabilization board to control wage. OPA and WSB, together, are supposed to keep wages and prices in line. This is how:

1. You, an employer, can raise your workers' wages as much as you wish—without any government permission — if you don't want to use the wage increase as an excuse for asking OPA to let you raise prices on the things you sell.
2. If you do wish to use a wage increase as an excuse for raising prices, first you must get an okay from WSB. If WSB says okay, then you can ask OPA to let you raise prices.

But this very grip it has on wages means WSB can tell you that you can raise wages only so much and no more. It has done this many times.

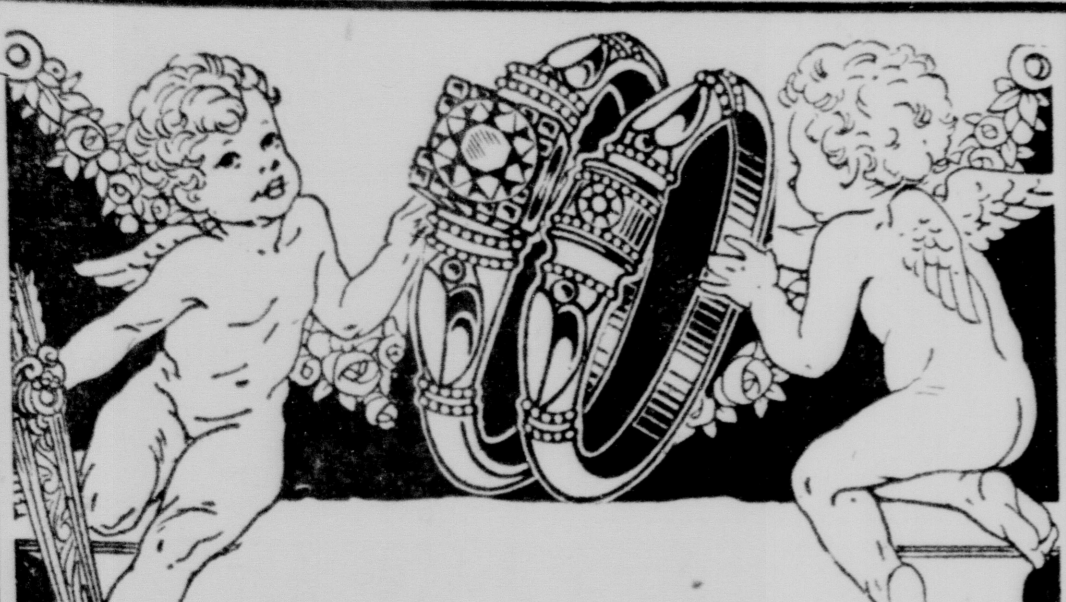

Which means: WSB can block workers from getting the kind of raises they think they could win if there were no WSB.

But it wouldn't be fair — and labor wouldn't stand for it — if the government tried to keep wages tied while prices went up.

Nor would it be fair—and business wouldn't stand for it—if Mr. Truman ended wage controls but kept a tight rein on prices.

So Mr. Truman says that as he speeds up the end of price controls, he will speed up the end of wage controls.

The Daily Washington Merry-go-Round

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17—(Ed. Note — Drew Pearson's column today takes the form of a letter to his brother in Paris.)

Washington, Oct. 17, 1946.
Leon Pearson,
International News Service,
Paris, France.

Dear Kid — Well, we are in for some interesting times in this country. A meat-mad America has been threatening to tear Harry Truman limb-from-limb politically unless its appetite for red meat was met, and poor Harry has finally surrendered. I felt sorry for him. But I feel sorrier over what may be ahead for all of us. We may be ready to follow the French road to inflation. Something has been happening in this country — something that doesn't jibe with our usual good sense and patriotism. Several weeks ago this normally sane nation suddenly went mad over meat, and it has stayed mad ever since. I have been trying to figure out the reason.

Actually we ate more meat during the war than before, 140 pounds per person per year, which was 12 pounds more than we ate annually before the war started. And as I look back on it, we never used to be a nation of such passionate meat-eaters. Remember when we were kids? We never had meat more than three or four times a week. Mother said it was too expensive and that vegetables were just as good, anyway. Remember what a big event it was when, once a week, we had round steak ground?

"Chicken in Every Pot" At that time chicken was an even greater delicacy. I always had it on Sundays, and I guess most every family did, for when Herbert Hoover wanted to promote the American people the super duper of food, he told 'em they'd get "a chicken in every pot", but now that Harry Truman has given us a chicken in every pot, and sometimes turkey to boot, we're not satisfied. Now it's to hell with chicken and Truman, we've got to have beefsteak in every refrigerator.

Sitting over there in Paris you will hardly believe some of these things. And if you came back on a quick trip you would hardly recognize some of your fellow Americans. They simply went berserk over meat.

I took a quick trip through the middle west last week, and that was all they were talking about — meat. Our dangerous problems with Russia, the hopes of the peace conference, the relative merits of political candidates all were forgotten in the rage over meat.

Of course, part of this was purposely whipped up by the Republicans — a strategy they live to regret. Republican candidates drove loudspeakers up to lines outside butcher shops and made the most of it. It got so bad that fine, able congressmen like Mike Monroney of Oklahoma were in danger of defeat.

But in addition to the politics involved, I am afraid that patriotism and unselfishness and the things that have made this country great, have slid into a terrific backwash. It began, as it usually begins, near the top. And it filtered down, as it always does, to the people below. When folks see their leaders in congress put a hand out, they wonder why they shouldn't put a hand out, too. And the last session of congress saw the greatest greed-grab I have ever witnessed since the Smoot-Hawley tariff act was written under Herbert Hoover. That act helped to wreck Hoover. And the same selfish prejudices, the same sectional interests, the same public-be-damned attitude of the last congress has already wrecked Truman — whether he was to blame or not.

Everybody was looking out for himself and the devil take the hindmost, especially when it came to killing price control.

Congressional Greed-Grab Senator Wherry of Nebraska, an automobile dealer, introduced an OPA amendment lifting the profit for automobile dealers. Senator Butler, Rep., of Nebraska, a big cattleman, worked for decontrolling meat. Senator Murdock, Dem., of Utah, land of the beet sugar, tacked on an amendment favoring the beet sugar growers. Senator Hoey, Dem., of North Carolina, which grows tobacco, took the price ceiling off tobacco.

Senator Radcliffe, Dem., of Maryland, where they go in for poultry, introduced an amendment boosting the poultry industry. Senator Ed Moore, Rep., the big oil man from Oklahoma, made sure that price ceilings were taken off oil.

Congressman Ed Gossett, Dem., of Texas, inserted a decontrol amendment for the National Association of Manufacturers; Congressman Jesse Wolcott, Rep., of Michigan, sometimes called the "General Motors spokesman" in congress, introduced the cost-plus profit amendment; Congressman Fred Hartley, Rep., of New Jersey, did everything possible to help the National Retail Dry Goods association, while millionaire Senator Taft of Ohio inserted the assured-profit amendment by which business was guaranteed the same lush, bonanza profits of the early war years.

Meanwhile Congressman Gillespie of Colorado, Rep., who shamelessly battled OPA, did not seem to think it wrong that his company, Bluhill Foods, violated OPA price ceilings to the tune of $15,000; while Senators Thomas of Oklahoma and Bankhead of Alabama had the gall to make speeches against OPA curbs on cotton speculation while they themselves were personally speculating in cotton.

Patriotism Goes Into Doldrums That is how our great lawmaking body was cavorting with the public trust in the summer of 1946, one year after fifteen million men had ended their fight for a principle which they thought sacred and a country which they thought was governed by unselfish congressmen.

However, congress usually reflects the sentiment of pressure groups back home and we can't blame congress for everything. In fact, if the American people have gone meat-mad and money-crazy, it's probably nobody's fault but our own. We have developed a great machine age. We have turned out rockets, atomic bombs, and world-girding airplanes. There isn't anything we haven't specialized on — except the science of living with our fellow men. We preach the Good Neighbor policy with Latin America, and we send to tell them how great we are. But if we don't practice good neighborliness at home, I sometimes wonder how we can expect to preach it abroad.

Having cared for our bodily comforts with well-stocked refrigerators and air-cooling and having developed the deadliest weapons in the world, it looks to me as if we would have to begin working at the science of being our brother's keeper. If we don't, there may be much of a civilization left for us to live in. Please excuse this kill-joy letter. I hope this prediction will be 82 percent wrong.

Your — at the moment very pessimistic — brother, Drew.

P. S. I am planning to run for congress on the platform pledge of a side of beef in every deep-freeze and two deep-freezes in every garage.

Shade of Sycamore

By PERCY MARKS Author of "The Plastic Age" "A Tree Grown Straight" Etc.

THE STORY: Gayle, daughter of a college professor, has just become engaged to handsome Bruce Bartlett, famous athlete and scion of wealth. Visiting his home and parents for the first time, she is frightened by the splendor in which they live. She takes her courage in both hands and asks old Mr. Bartlett to discontinue Bruce's allowance, to let them make their own way, like other young couples. He says it would not be fair to his son, who has been brought up to rely on wealth.

WHEN Gayle returned to the house, Symes told her that Mrs. Bartlett would like to see her in her room if it was convenient. Mrs. Bartlett was still in bed, and her secretary, a small, mousy woman of forty, was sitting near by. She rose to acknowledge the introduction, which Mrs. Bartlett made casually, and then held a chair for Gayle.

"It is kind of you to come," Mrs. Bartlett said. "Bruce tells me your mother will announce the engagement next week."

"Yes, Mrs. Bartlett. That's what we had planned."

"Do you know what arrangements she has made for notifying the newspapers?"

"The newspapers?" Gayle stared at Mrs. Bartlett. "Do we have to notify them?"

Mrs. Bartlett's smile made Gayle feel like a gauche little country girl who was attempting to swim in social waters much too deep for her. "Oh, of course, my dear," she said, her voice light and amused. "It is most necessary. And there will have to be a picture of you, a really fine photograph—but, no, I have a better idea. Bruce showed me the pen-and-ink drawing your friend made. It is an excellent likeness, and it has a great deal of style." She turned toward the secretary. "You saw it, Miss Holland. Don't you think so?"

"Oh yes, Mrs. Bartlett. I think it will do admirably."

newspapers are sure to telephone to us and ask for them. Or should Joel Dwight take care of it?"

"I can easily, Mrs. Bartlett. I'll have some glossy prints made. The newspapers always prefer those." She stood up. "I'll prepare the list immediately?"

"If you will."

Miss Holland left the room, and Mrs. Bartlett smiled at Gayle. "It's nothing to be concerned about," she said, "and you will get used to this sort of thing quickly."

"I'm not concerned," Gayle assured her. "I've just been unthinking; that's all."

The conversation flowed aimlessly for a little while, but in a few minutes the talk came around to Bart, and then for the first time since Gayle had met her, Mrs. Bartlett revealed warmth. She talked with great eagerness, and her black eyes were bright with pride in her boy. Her formality fell away, and she was just an adoring mother telling her son's fiancée how lucky she was. To Mrs. Bartlett, Bart was flawless—the handsomest, the most brilliant, the most charming of men.

She talked on and on until her maid said it was almost time for luncheon. Gayle was fascinated. Mrs. Bartlett seemed quite a different woman from the one she had seen before, and Gayle was so deeply in love that every detail of Bart's life was precious to her.

"I've enjoyed this so much," she said, rising from her chair. She looked at Mrs. Bartlett, her cheeks pink, her brown eyes glowing. "You see, I think he's every bit as wonderful as you do."

Mrs. Bartlett did not move, but somehow she was the queen once more, cold and remote. "I'm sure you do, my dear. Now if you will forgive me, I must bathe and dress."

Gayle left the room feeling like a little girl who has been dismissed for bad behavior. "I wonder what I said wrong," she thought unhappily. "Surely, she knows I love Bart. You'd almost think I didn't have a right to."

However Flight To Westoverfield, Mass.,
In 12 And Half Hours

WESTOVERFIELD, Mass., Oct. 17.—(P)—A pilot who "wouldn't be interested in a record to Westover" set the U. S. army B-29 Pacusan Dreamboat down here today 12 hours and 25 minutes after taking off from Paris, France.

Mixes Work

CHILLICOTHE, Mo., Oct. 17.—(P)—Strictly in line of duty, fireman John Black smashed the front window of a grocery store so he and fellow firefighters could enter to battle a blaze.

The next day he went back and got the job of replacing the glass in his part-time job as a glazier.

Neb., called his flight "routine except for one mild front three hours out with a lot of electrical stuff in it so that we lost all our radio equipment that was turned on."

Missouri Navigator

The navigator, Major N. P. Hays of Seneca, Mo., reported that the Atlantic hop was made at 20,000 feet at an air speed of 305 to 307 miles per hour.

Asked about the trans-Atlantic speed record, claimed by TWA for a Paris-New York run of 14 hours and 39 minutes a year ago, Col. Irvine said:

"I made no attempt to make a record. I wouldn't be interested in a record to Westover."

Took off At 9:38 A. M. Paris
The Dreamboat took off from Orly Field in Paris at 9:38 a. m. (2:38 a. m. CST) and navigator Hays said official landing time was 3:03 p. m. (CST).

One radio set, very high frequency equipment, escaping being burned out by the front storms, the colonel reported.

In the crew of 10 was a civilian engineer, R. S. Snodgrass of Seattle.

Field officials said the Dreamboat would take off for Washington in the morning.

Army Doesn't Claim Record

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—(P)—The flight of the Pacusan Dreamboat today from Paris to Westoverfield, Mass., in slightly less than 12½ hours was not claimed as a record by the army air forces which noted that faster trans-Atlantic crossings had been made.

A record time of seven hours one minute for a trip from Shannon, Erie to Gander, Newfoundland was claimed this week for a Transworld Airline Constellation Airliner.

From Paris to Westoverfield no previous flight time have been recorded, officials said.

For the easier westward flight, the time of 20 hours 29 minutes made in 1937 by Henry T. Merrill and John S. Lamb still is booked as a record by the National Aeronautics Association. This flight was from New York to London.

Club Meets at Hatfield Home

The Lone Oak Busy Bee club held its October meeting at the home of Mrs. Will Hatfield. There were eight members present. Visitors were Mrs. Donald Schmigel and son, Ken, and Mrs. Ray Chapman. A covered dish luncheon was served at noon. The afternoon business meeting was opened by the president, Mrs. Olan Morrison. A song, "Oh What a Friend," was sung by the group. There was a Scripture reading by Mrs. Chapman. The secretary and treasurer reported $14.50 was received by the club as their part from exhibits furnished the Morgan county booth at the Missouri state fair. Seven books were reported read. The club took part in Achievement Day at Versailles and won third prize on their table of easy guest meals.

Members attending were: Mrs. Carl Moon, Mrs. Roy Belt and Mrs. Harvey Richardson. Game awards were received by Mrs. Nathan Conley, Mrs. Olan Morrison and Mrs. Ray Chapman. A cherry chum gift and kitchen shower was received by Mrs. Will Hatfield. The November meeting will be with Mrs. Walter Eichholz. The meeting was dismissed in prayer by Mrs. Will Hatfield.

S. Wolfberg Heads Restaurant Ass'n.

JEFFERSON CITY, Oct. 17.—(P)—S. Wolfberg of Kansas City, newly elected president of the revived Missouri Restaurant Association, predicted today removal of meat price controls would result eventually in prices 15 to 20 per cent over the old ceilings.

He said he thought prices would go "pretty high" at first, but gradually would simmer down to the predicted level.

Wolfberg, elected at the first association meeting since before the war, succeeds S. C. Lawrence of Joplin as president.

Other officers: B. M. Franks, St. Louis, first vice president; Gus Otto, Springfield, second vice president; Fred Pierce, Joplin, third vice president; J. E. Mealer, Washington, fourth vice president; Arthur E. Cook, Kansas City, treasurer; Paul M. Miller, Kansas City, secretary.

Chosen directors were W. G. Holt, Booneville; Willis Julier, Al Smith and August Sabadell, all of St. Louis; Mrs. Anna Petersen, Kansas City, and Mrs. Aphra Bradford, St. Joseph.

On the advisory board are retiring President Lawrence, Myron Green and C. M. Hayman of Kansas City and Harold Maib of Lexington.

Fats And Oils Removed From OPA Control

Butter And Other
Dairy Products
Are Equally Free

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—(P)—OPA took all price restraints off vegetable fats and oils tonight, and the price decontrol board decided to keep butter and other dairy products equally free of control.

These two decisions, following close on the freeing of meat from price control, were disclosed as another from of wartime restrictions, government curbs on wages, appeared headed for a quick death. They coincided, too, with increasing political debate as to who is to blame for food shortages and rising prices. Elections in which these issues are already a big factor will be held November 5.

In its fats and oils order, which is effective tomorrow, OPA said that decontrol of such meat items as lard made it imperative to grant the same to competing vegetable oils. Housewives will notice the effects chiefly on oleomargarine, shortening, mayonnaise, salad dressings and cooking oils.

The price decontrol board announced that butter and cheese prices "have now risen to an unreasonable level," but added that under the accelerated decontrol program of President Truman, it had no choice but to leave dairy products control-free.

"Recontrol of all or any part of the dairy industry would be inconsistent with the accelerated decontrol program announced by the President on October 14 when he directed that controls be lifted from livestock and meat," the board said.

It held out some hope of lower prices or dairy products, saying: "It is expected that with the rising production of milk and the resumption of livestock slaughter, the pressure on prices of dairy products will be materially relieved."

The OPA order on oils also freed from price control by-product feeds and mixed feeds for animals.
